Introduction

Twitter is a great, quick tool to stay in contact with patrons and keep up to date with other libraries and authors. Unlike Facebook Twitter can feel more conversational and personable. This is an excellent tool for not only connecting with patrons but connecting with libraries across the world for ideas and feedback. Also make sure to follow community accounts to keep up to date and tie programming into what is going on in the community. Have fun!

Signing Up

1. The first step is to go to <http://twitter.com> where you will find the following page. Press Sign Up.

2. Fill in the fields using the library information. In the name field use the full library name, for example "Peace Library System." Use an email address not phone number as this is meant for cellphones. This should be accessible by more than one person to prevent loss of access.

Join Twitter today.

By signing up, you agree to the Terms of Service and Privacy Policy, including Cookie Use. Others will be able to find you by email or phone number when provided.

3. At the email address used a confirmation email will be sent. Press the link to finish setting up your account.

The library's Twitter account is now set up! Now continue on to the next section on how to further set up the account.

Basics

Twitter Lingo

Hashtag? Tweet? Retweet? What does it all mean? Below is a short overview of all the terms used.

Tweet is what a post on Twitter is called. Sharing someone else's tweet is called a Retweet.

Hashtags are a way of tagging or classifying a tweet. Add to any post to collect tweets and sort as they will appear as a hyperlink. Punctuation and spaces cannot be used.

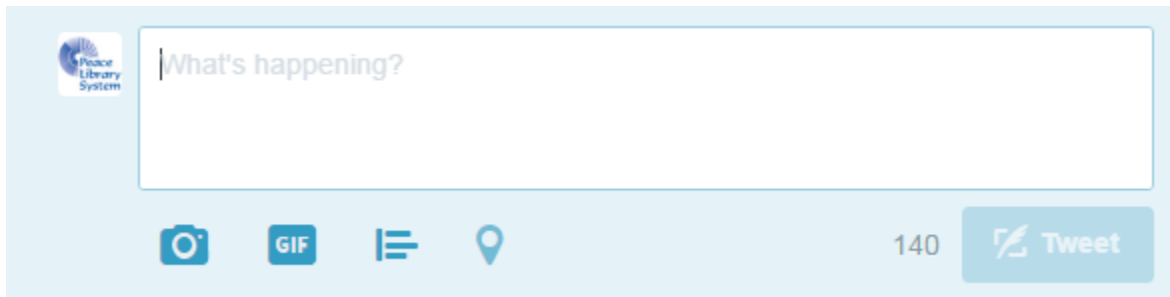

For example #peacelibrarysystem will be a category for tweets either by PLS or other people to talk about the Peace Library System.

Posting

Either select the "Tweet" button in the top right hand corner.

Or select the text box available on the Home page and start drafting.

Photos/videos, gifs (moving pictures) and polls can be added. Links can be added as addresses in the text.

As you type you will see the small character count decrease and when you are happy with your Tweet just click "Tweet."

Unlike Facebook you cannot queue your tweets on the Twitter website, so you will need to use an alternative service to do so.

Twitter offers TweetDeck at <https://tweetdeck.twitter.com/> or a program like HootSuite or another alternative will allow you to do so not only for Twitter but other social media accounts.

Reply, Retweet and Like

Under every post you will notice 4 different symbols.

- Reply: send a tweet in reply to a particular tweet and to that account which had tweeted it.
- Retweet: share the content on your profile to your audience.
- Like: show that you like the content to the person.
- More options are found in the "... " icon.
  - Share via Direct Message: share the content in a private message.
  - Copy link to Tweet: copy a link to the tweet to share on Facebook or online.
  - Embed Tweet: this has code to embed on a website
  - Mute: silence the profile, they do not know you have done this but you will no longer see their content
  - Block: block the profile, they know this has been done and cannot contact you.
  - Report: harassment or inappropriate content by a profile can be reported.

Update profile

On the main page after logging in selecting your profile name from the left hand side page will bring you to the profile page. This is what other people will see when they search your page.

Editing your profile photo and cover photo (the photo behind the profile page) can be done here. Even changing the page colours!

Select "Edit profile" to get started.

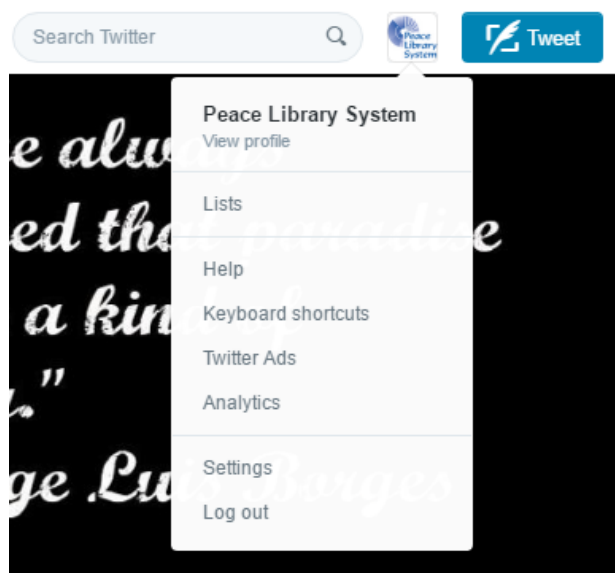

Click on any element to change it.

Under the information about the page you can also change the theme colour to suit your library's colours. Enter your own or select one.

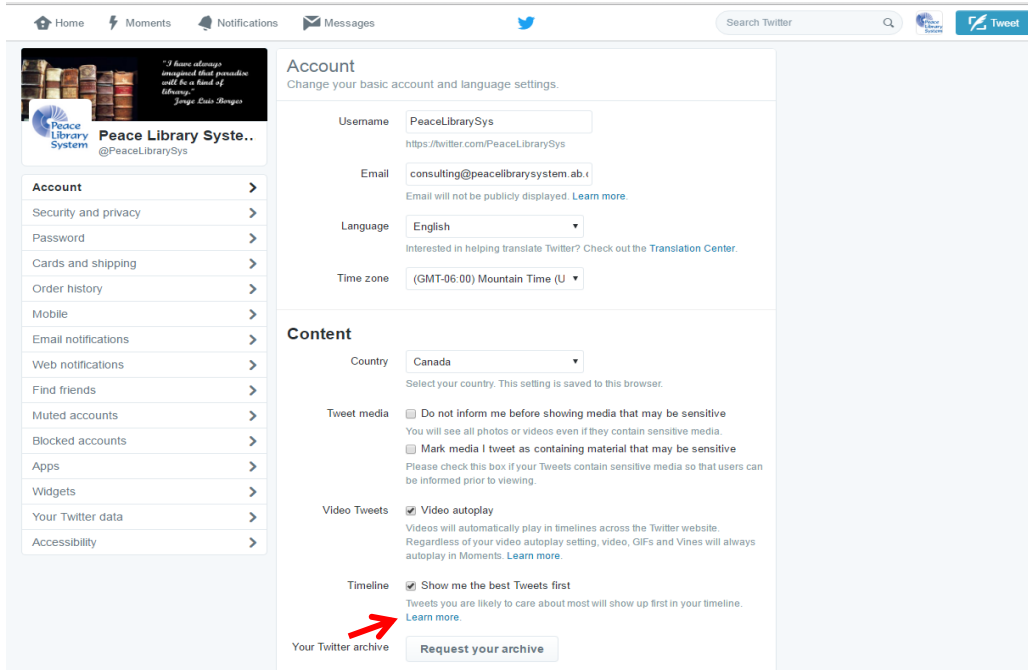

Once you are complete to keep the changes you must press the blue "Save change" button where the edit button was.

Settings

Settings and more can be found by clicking the little profile picture icon in the top right hand corner.

If you have any questions about a setting just press “Learn more” to find out what it does.

Facebook and Twitter

Facebook and Twitter are no longer as integrated as they once were. In setting under “Apps” you can

Under settings there are a wide variety of things that can be changed. If you are unsure about what any of the settings do just select the “Learn more” to find out what it does.

Adding to a Website

Twitter

1. Under Settings (see above) in the left hand menu you will see “Widgets.”
2. Press Create New > Profile

The screenshot shows the Twitter Widgets configuration interface. On the left, a navigation menu lists various settings, with 'Widgets' highlighted by a red circle. The main area displays the 'Widgets' section for the account '@PeaceLibrarySys'. A 'Create new' button is present, and a dropdown menu is open, showing options for 'Profile', 'Likes', 'List', 'Collection', and 'Search'. A red arrow on the right side of the image points directly to the 'Create new' button.

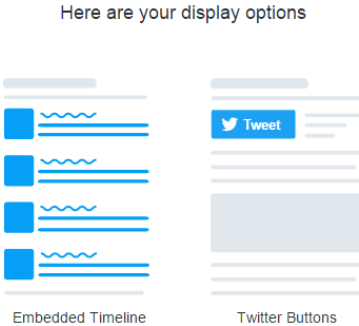

3. Select “a profile” from the drop down menu.

This screenshot shows the 'What would you like to embed?' dialog box in Twitter. It features a search input field at the top with the placeholder text 'Enter a Twitter URL'. Below the input field, a list of suggestions is displayed, including 'A collection', 'A Tweet', 'A profile', 'A list', 'A likes timeline', 'A handle, like @TwitterDev', and 'A hashtag, like #LoveTwitter'. The 'A profile' option is currently selected and highlighted.

4. Delete “TwitterDev” and add your profile name (@username) and press enter to continue.

- 5. Select either a live feed or button to put on your website.
- 6. Customize if necessary.
- 7. Click on the code or click "Copy Code" to have it copied to your clipboard.

That's all we need, unless you'd like to set customization options.

By embedding Twitter content in your website or app, you are agreeing to the Developer Agreement and Developer Policy.

Follow @TwitterDev

- 8. Go to your website content editor and create new "Side Content"
- 9. In the body section click source and paste your code. Do not paste it in the box without pressing source or it will only appear as text.
- 10. Enter a title and location > Save.

The screenshot shows a rich text editor toolbar with various icons for text formatting, alignment, and linking. The 'Source' button, which is used to switch to the HTML source view, is circled in red. Below the toolbar, a portion of the HTML code is visible, showing an anchor tag for a Twitter follow button: `Foll`

The screenshot displays a Twitter feed. At the top, it says 'Tweets by @PeaceLibrarySys'. The first tweet is a retweet from @PeaceLibrarySys of a tweet from @PressReader. The tweet text reads: '#HowTo: Find your perfect match! Discover new #magazines & #newspapers with these quick tips bit.ly/2atHY8'. Below the text is a video player showing a smartphone screen with a play button. The second tweet is from @PeaceLibrarySys, dated 02 Aug, with the text: 'Trend alert for libraries: kite-making workshops slj.com/2016/07/progra...'. At the bottom of the feed is a blue 'Follow @peacelibrarysys' button.

Depending upon which option you chose - this is what it will look like on the website!
The top is the feed option and the bottom is the button.

Multiple Social Media Accounts

Alternatively if you have multiple social media accounts and would like it to just be icons like this:

Adding each icon as an image and then making a link to your page will have a similar effect.

Title: *

Display Title: *

Body:

A screenshot of a rich text editor interface. The top part shows a toolbar with various icons for text formatting and insertion. A red arrow points to the 'Image' icon in the toolbar. Below the toolbar is a preview area showing the four social media icons (Pinterest, Facebook, Twitter, RSS) arranged horizontally. The preview area is enclosed in a thin black border.

1. Add a title, chose whether to displace, location and weight.
2. Add an image.
3. Browse Server and add the image.

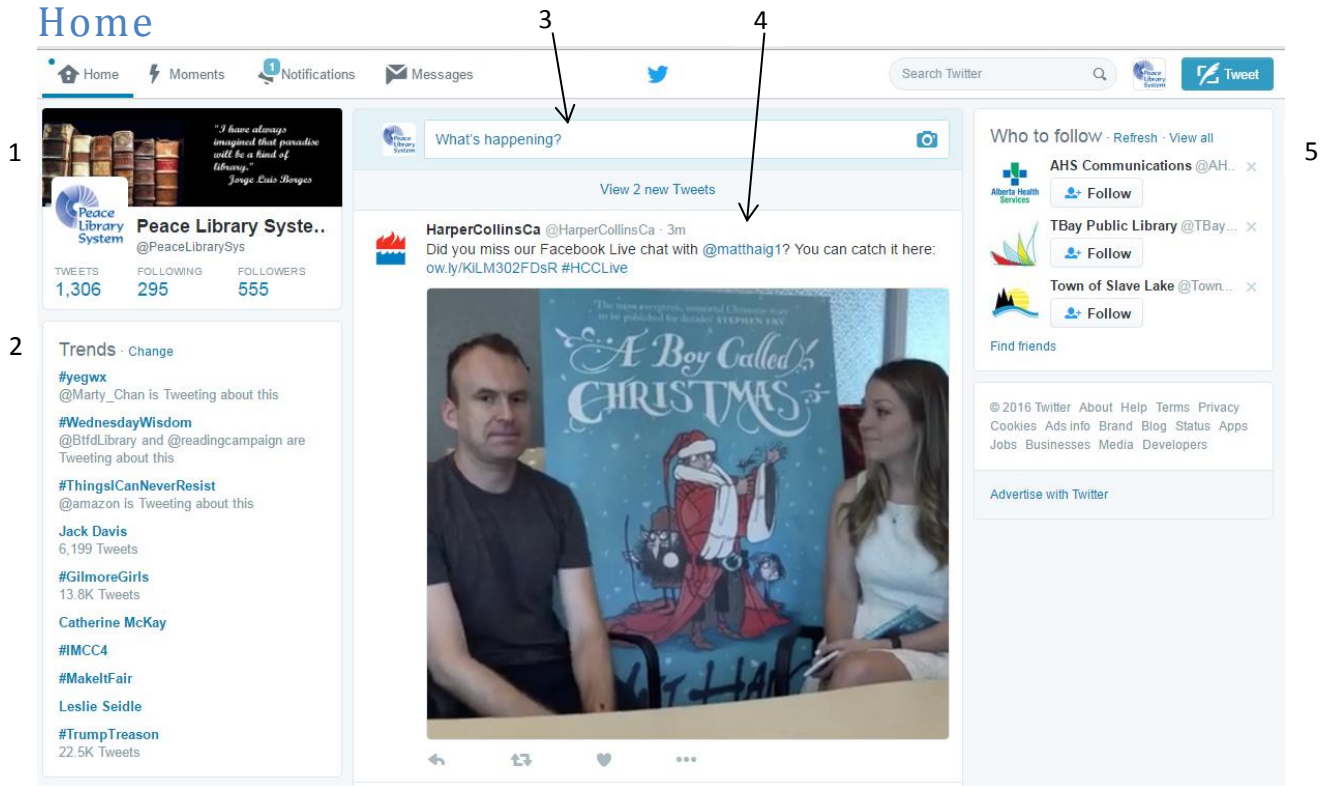

4. Click "Link" and add the link to your profile.

5. Repeat for others and then press Save.

Home

On the home screen there are several different areas: Profile information, Trends, Posting, Feed and Who to Follow.

1. Profile Information

This includes information on how many tweets have been sent, how many people you are following and how many people are following your profile. Clicking on the profile name will allow you to go to your profile.

2. Trends

Trending topics appear here. You can change for Twitter picked trend you may like or have a geographical focus. This is what people are talking about on Twitter.

Tweet about topics here and use the words or hashtag involved to join the conversation and help people discover your profile.

3. Posting

Detailed in the Posting section.

4. Feed

Here all tweets by the people you follow will appear. It does not automatically refresh and you will notice a "View x new Tweets" – click this to view the most recent tweets. Scroll through to check out what's new and choose to "Reply" "Retweet" or "Like"

5. Who to Follow

Depending upon what profiles you have visited or followed recently Twitter will recommend accounts you may like. Click the name to check out their profile, Follow if you know you already want to or the little x to get a new suggestion.

Moments

Moments acts as a news centre for Twitter. Find out what is happening now and what people are talking about.

Notifications

Notifications shows all the activity on your page. You can see where people have retweeted our content and liked Tweets.

The screenshot shows a 'Mentions' section on Twitter. At the top, it says 'All / People you follow'. There are three tweets listed:

- The first tweet is a reply to YABS by Joan Marie Galat (@JoanMarieGalat) on 30 Oct 2015. The text is 'That's what I told him! @YABStweet @PeaceLibrarySys'. It has 1 like and 1 retweet.
- The second tweet is also by Joan Marie Galat (@JoanMarieGalat) on 30 Oct 2015. The text is 'Day 4 - kids' quotes at library presentation." I want to be a scientist & write books. How do you write a book?" @PeaceLibrarySys @YABStweet'. It has 1 like and 1 retweet.
- The third tweet is from YABS (@YABStweet) on 29 Oct 2015. The text is 'We love our longstanding partnership with @PeaceLibrarySys!'. It contains a quote from Joan Marie Galat (@JoanMarieGalat) that says '@PeaceLibrarySys has been the ideal host. Today's library visits mean 200+ kids can now find the North Star. @karen_sp_fitz @YABStweet'. This tweet has 2 retweets and 3 likes.

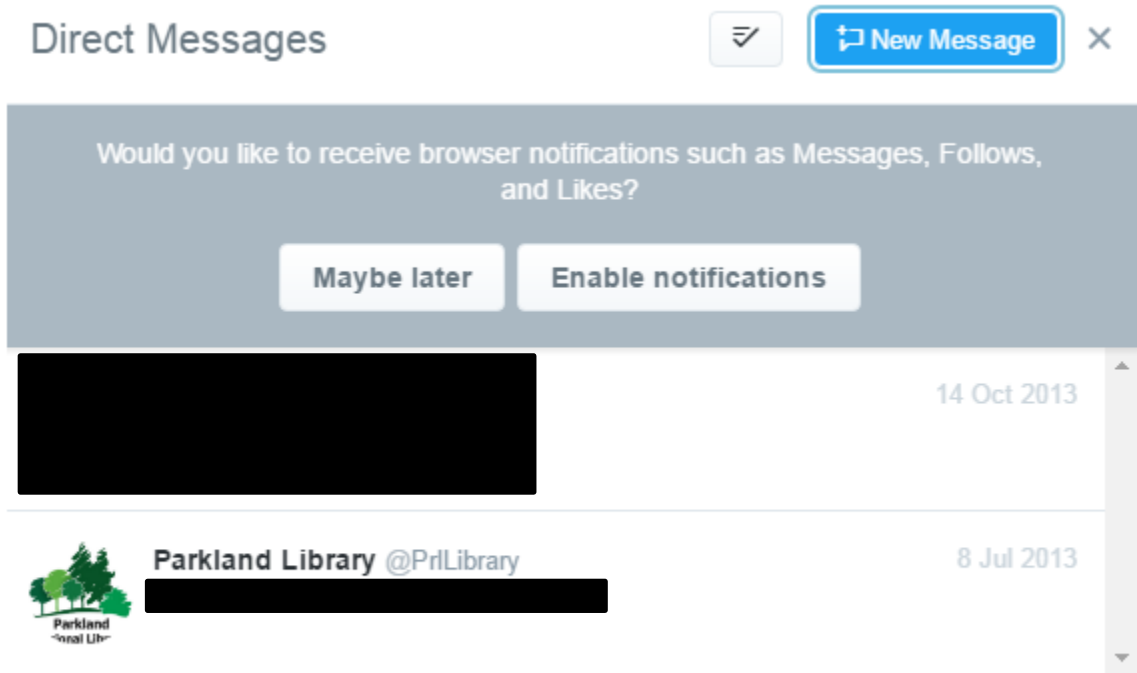

Mentions are when someone has used the reply button. You can see conversations between accounts when you see In reply to at the top of a tweet. Clicking the tweet will bring up a box with all the tweets in this particular conversation and in response to a tweet.

The screenshot shows a tweet conversation. At the top, YABS (@YABStweet) on 30 Oct 2015 says 'Perhaps we'll see that kid as a non-fiction writer in our touring ranks in a few years!'. Below this is a quote box containing a tweet from Joan Marie Galat (@JoanMarieGalat) on 30 Oct 2015: 'Day 4 - kids' quotes at library presentation." I want to be a scientist & write books. How do you write a book?" @PeaceLibrarySys @YABStweet'. Below the quote box, there is a tweet from Joan Marie Galat (@JoanMarieGalat) on 30 Oct 2015: 'That's what I told him! @YABStweet @PeaceLibrarySys'. This tweet has 1 like and 1 retweet. The user profile for Joan Marie Galat is visible, showing she is followed.

Messages

Here you can send private messages. This is great for if a patron asks a question on Twitter and you need an email address or phone number to call back.

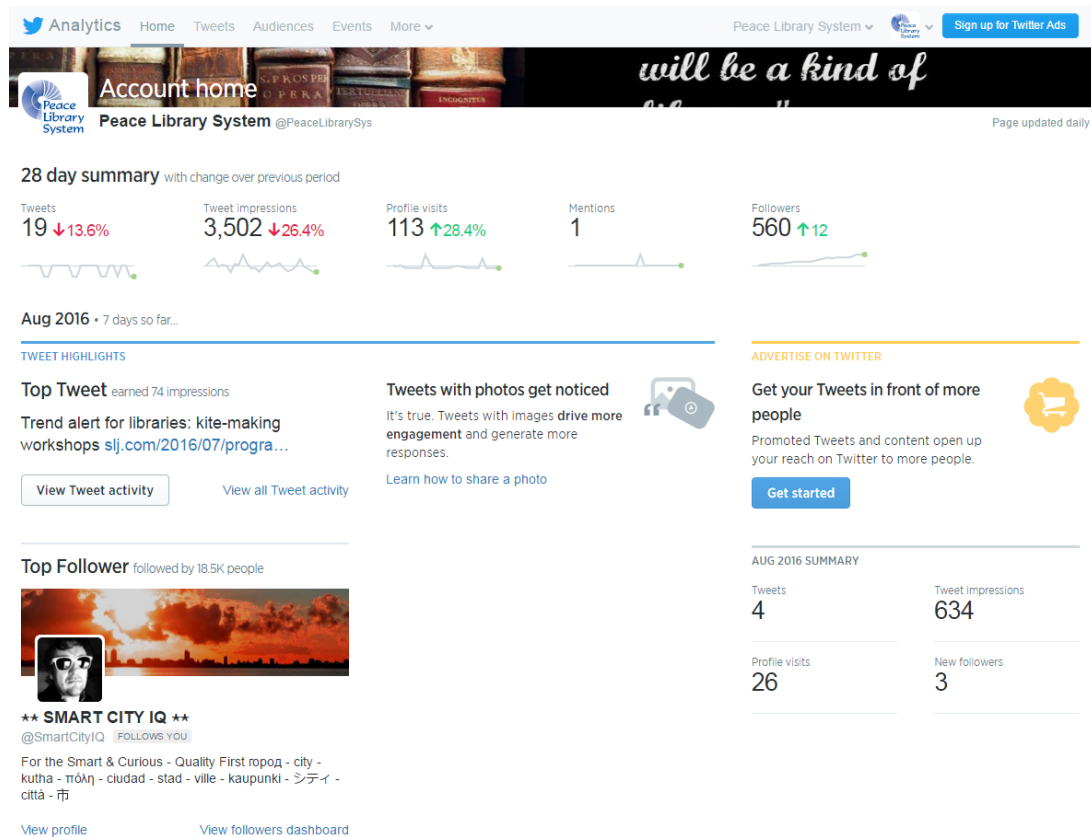

To send a message press “New Message” or the  icon and type their username.

Content can also be shared privately under the “...” which appears under every tweet. This will appear under this menu.

Analytics

Here you can see how your account is performing. See what tweets work and how many followers have been gained. On the front page you will see an overview of the present month, scrolling down will give you the same for previous months.

To see how all your tweets are performing go to the Tweets tab.

Here you can see how many impressions (views) a tweet has had, engagements (clicks/likes/retweets). This is excellent for a brief overview and understanding what tweets work and what ones do not.

Links and photos will perform better than text only tweets. Humour does very well too on Twitter.
