

The Library Effect

STORYTELLING CONTEST: OCTOBER 1 - 31, 2024

peacelibrarysystem.ab.ca/thelibraryeffect

Name (Community
Email	Library
Phone	Age Child Teen Adult
Writing Prompts These prompts can help guide your story, but feel free to share any library Discovering a Passion: Share a story about how the library helped you discover a passion or interest that has significantly impacted your life. Overcoming Challenges: Have you faced any challenges that the library	experience that resonates with you: Personal Growth: How has spending time at the library contributed to your personal growth or self-improvement? Do you have any examples of how it shaped who you are today?
helped you overcome? How did library resources or services make a difference?	Improving Well-being: In what ways has the library contributed to your mental well-being or provided support during challenging times?
Achieving Goals: How has the library supported your educational journey or career goals? Can you describe any specific instances where it played a key role?	Inspiring Change: Has the library inspired you to make a change in your life or take a new direction? Share how the library was a catalyst for that change.
Finding Community: Tell us about a time when the library helped you connect with others or become involved in your community.
Share your story.

By signing this form, you allow your local library and/or Peace Library System to use, reproduce, publish, and distribute your submission in any media format (e.g., print, digital, social media) for promotional, educational, and marketing purposes. For details, use the QR code or request a copy from library staff.		SCAN FOR DETAILS
		Or visitpeacelibrarysystem.ab.ca /thelibraryeffect/consent
I prefer to remain anonymous - use my story but not my name or photo.		, menoral yenect/consent
signature:	Date:
Parent / Guardian Signature:	Date:

For specific privacy concerns, please contact jkergan@peacelibrarysystem.ab.ca.

